Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Fugitive Slave Law and its Victims - Slave Stories - Example: JOSHUA GLOVER, colored man, claimed as the slave of B.S. Garland, of St. Louis County, Missouri, was arrested near Racine, Wisconsin, about the 10th of March, 1854. Arrest made by five men, who burst suddenly into his shanty, put a pistol to his head, felled him to the ground, handcuffed him, and took him in a wagon to Milwaukee jail, a distance of twenty-five miles. They swore that if he shouted or made the least noise, they would kill him instantly. When visited, says the Milwaukee Sentinel, We found him in his cell. He was cut in two places on the head; the front of his shirt and vest were soaking and stiff with his own blood. A writ of habeas corpus was immediately issued; also a warrant for the arrest of the five men who assaulted and beat him in his shanty. Thousands of people collected around the jail and court-house, the excitement being intense. A vigilance committee of twenty-five persons was appointed to watch...
