He attended a truant school with the late heavy weight-boxing champion, Floyd Patterson. At 15, he spent time in Riker s Island Penitentiary. He was diagnosed bipolar with severe learning disorders. His life wasn t lived in a normal fashion. After many marriages, jobs, and therapists, he met a counselor, the Counselor, who had all the answers. Instead of medication, he prescribed a daily dose of His love and His Holy Spirit, allowing him to live a victorious life. Through Hugh s experiences and words of hard-earned wisdom, you will find practical strategies for overcoming any adversity. Let the life of Hugh Elgin be a testament to all who deal with the various struggles of life. Anything can be dealt with, even death. He has turned his trauma into a salve for the pains of others.
