Against the background of the scientific advances of World War II, Jeff predicts that ships from earth will travel to other planets, perhaps by sailing in space, propelled by solar winds. Jeff's genius, vision and hard work bring great success. He is able to retire early to pursue original research, but Verna soon begins to suspect that something is very wrong. The peaceful life she anticipated is torn apart when Jeff's behavior becomes increasingly unpredictable. In order to survive--both financially and emotionally--Verna must somehow find within herself the strength for both of them.
