

In Search of the Talented Tenth: Howard University Public Intellectuals and the Dilemmas of Race, 1926-1970

By Zachery Williams

University of Missouri Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, In Search of the Talented Tenth: Howard University Public Intellectuals and the Dilemmas of Race, 1926-1970, Zachery Williams, From the 1920s through the 1970s, Howard University was home to America's most renowned assemblage of black scholars. This book traces some of the personal and professional activities of this community of public intellectuals, demonstrating their scholar-activist nature and the myriad ways they influenced modern African American, African, and Africana policy studies. "In Search of the Talented Tenth" tells how individuals like Rayford Logan, E. Franklin Frazier, John Hope Franklin, Merze Tate, Charles Wesley, and Dorothy Porter left an indelible imprint on academia and black communities alike through their impact on civil rights, anticolonialism, and women's rights. Zachery Williams explores W. E. B. Du Bois' Talented Tenth by describing their role as public intellectuals from the Harlem Renaissance to the Black Power movement and in times as trying as the Jim Crow and Cold War eras. Williams first describes how the years 1890 to 1926 laid the foundation for Howard's emergence as the 'capstone of Negro education' during the administration of university president Mordecai Johnson. He offers a wide-ranging discussion of how...
