As Captain Dutton says: Not only are we deceived, but we are conscious that we are deceived, and yet we cannot conquer the deception. Dimensions mean nothing to the senses, and all that we are conscious of in this respect is a troubled sense of immensity. At last the roar of waters tells us that our ride is nearly ended, that in four hours we have made our way down to a level to attain which the Colorado has been laboring for ages upon ages. A few rods more and we behold the surging struggles of the great angry prisoner of the canon; and as we dip our fingers in the murky, coffee-colored tide, we feel W Potap yrlgh 1899. byTI L--GTPcabo, Boston A STORM IN THE cafON the same thrill that comes to him who for the first time stands...
