When the idea of such a volume as this was first broached, it met with immediate favor and gratifying expressions of confidence on the part of a number of our oldest Bishops and Clergy. A like feeling of interest was also found to exist among brethren of the Laity. Under this stimulus, the writer was induced to set about the matter with zeal and courage; and though at times much perplexed lest he might be doing an unwise, perhaps hurtful thing, he persevered to the end. The story is told - or meant to be told - in intelligible, straightforward words. The writer has endeavored to carry out fully the promise made in asking for subscriptions, viz., to speak the truth plainly, clearly, honestly, without any malice towards anybody, but with charity towards all who profess to love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and faithfulness.
